Georgia

Reason for Hope

- Election Integrity advocates swept state GOP executive board positions
- Massive grass roots activism led by Kandiss Taylor, Cause of America, Georgians for Truth, Holly Kesler, Citizens Defending Freedom, and VoterGA putting pressure on legislature to act
- Turnover in Lt. Gov. and House Speaker has resulted in a legislature more friendly to election integrity
- 12 of GA Election Integrity Network's top 25 legislative priorities were introduced in last General Assembly session and parts of two were passed

Reason for Hope: Hand Count Success

Georgia

- Spalding County Election Board voted to hand count all ballots to verify election results prior to certification
- Paulding County Elections Director is making a similar commitment to hand count all ballots to verify election results prior to certification

Reason for Hope: Lawsuit Success

Georgia

- Won a decision against Gwinnett County to turn over digital ballot images including attorney fee awards.
- Georgia Supreme Court ruled unanimously with no hearing citizens, residents, taxpayers and voters have always had standing to sue government officials and agencies who violate the law
- Defeated lawfare attempt by Fulton County to collect $38,000 from Garland Favorito and candidate Phil Chen for an election challenge.

Reason for Hope: Legislative Success

Georgia

- Banned all outdoor drop boxes (2021)
- Made digital ballot images public record (2021)
- Banned counties from receiving private money for elections (2021-2023)
- Independently funded the State Election Board
