Roadblocks

Alabama State Level

- Secretary of State, County Commissioners and County Probate Judges
- No provision to conduct a forensic audit

Alabama County Level

- 67 counties potentially running 67 different processes
- No checks between tabulator tape numbers and the ballot accounting certificates at the end of the election night.

Alabama Local Level

- Voter's are unaware of lawful voting processes

Victories

Lawsuits

- Primilinary injuction filed in the State of Alabama
- Alabama Federation for the Blind is suing the State of Alabama seeking to make electronic voting via the internet available to voters with qualified disabilities
- 12 states already allow
- At least 5 other states are currently involved in similar litigation

Legislative Efforts

- Enactment of laws requiring the preservation of election data
- Implement a statewide post-election audit to ensure the accuracy of voting machines.
(Alabama did pass a law allowing a limited audit in 3 counties, in one precinct for one race on a volunteer basis.)

Citizen Efforts

- Citizens are engaged in civic activities to monitor elections and work with legislators to enact laws and adopt policies and procedures to better secure our elections.
- Statewide Voter File Analyses
- Drop Box Monitoring
- FOIA Requests
- Petition Drives

Goals

- Decertify the electronic voting systems in Alabama, because they are not properly certified by the Electronic Voting Commitee
