Explain This

Harri Hursti and state officials delete memory card during audit

136 Town clerks sent their memory cards to be deleted after election. Violating the 22 month rule

NH goes from 72.2 turn out to 92.5 after purging over 230k off roles

The National Change of Address (NCOA) data identified 15,552 voters who moved prior to the 2020 general election, but were still registered to vote at their old address.

Blocks

Arrests/ Harassment

- NHVIG founder Marylyn Todd was arrested (later dismissed) for obtaining public record information in hopes to deter the rest of NH from acquiring the info.
- Constant media harassment
- 9 people were unjustly arrested at an executive council meeting NHVIG founder Marylyn Todd was among those arrested
- NHVIG founder Marylyn Todd sent mailers for machine awareness, NH AG put her under investigation but refuses to investigate the abundant amount of evidence we have supplied

Leadership not listening

- 500 people showed up to windham to select an independent auditor and we were told we were irrelevant
- 50 Election bills were submitted with all of them getting shut down except for 1.

Fake Audit

- Destruction of election records
- 3 auditors for verified voting
- Not one machine matched when ran through the same machines
- Security cameras went out multiple times even once with the AG showing up in the middle of the night
- Extra unknown boxes show up for the audit
- NH AG highjacked audit
- LHS instructions were used to preform audit

NH AG

- Investigations for mailers however never for the election fraud
- James O'keefe sent NH AG a video of someone admitting to double voting and they subpoenaed james oppose to the person who committed fraud
- NH AG Richard Tracey states at the audit just because its unethical doesn't make it a criminal violation. Admitting it was unethical.
